

What is a Representative of Brevard College's Athletics Interests?

A representative of Brevard College's athletics interests is an individual, business or organization who is known (or who should have been known) by a member of the institution's executive or athletics administration to:

- Have participated in or is a member of an agency or organization promoting the institution's intercollegiate athletics program;
- Have made financial contributions to the athletics department or to an athletics booster organization (i.e. Tornado Club) or that institution;
- Assisting or have been requested (by the athletics department staff) to assist in the recruitment of prospects;
- Assisting or to have assisted in providing benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families;
- Have been involved otherwise in promoting the institution's athletics program.

Once you have gained the status of a representative of athletics interest for Brevard College you will retain this status forever, regardless of your affiliation with Brevard College in the future.
